

Negro Park Drive Opens Wednesday

Nothing in the history of this city was done toward the recreational needs of the Negro population until four years ago when the Hope Civic Improvement association embarked upon the idea of developing a park. The president of the organization was authorized to raise funds for the purchase of a park site. Within five weeks $2,640 was raised and purchase of more than 15 acres of ground northeast of Hope on the DeAnn road just outside the city was made.

The development of the site has, like other important and lasting undertakings, been gradual. A capital investment has been acquired there since 1947 of $12,000 of which nearly 6,000 has been paid by the Hope Civic Improvement association through various programs and drives.

In this respect Hope leads all other towns and cities of the state. It has the only adequately lighted baseball field for negroes in the state. It has the largest single tract of land for a negro park in the state.

The location is ideal; the topography of the grounds is excellent, smooth with a gentle slope that drains perfectly. It is easily accessible.

Following is the Negro organization's statement:

"We do here express our deepest gratitude to all who have been so generous and sympathetic in giving of your time and means and interest in this cause. Especially do we thank the city administration and business men for your interest in the past.

"The organization keeps an accurate record of all its finances and transaction.

"We are interested in every phase of Negro activity and development of our city, and a more friendly and genuine relationship to these causes we pledge our most sincere and ardent efforts.

"We solicit the membership of all our Negro citizens, who want progress and a better town."

"We ask every citizen, white and negro, to make a definite contribution to this drive.

"Whether you give or not, you will share like those who do give, the credit for whatever is accomplished. The drive begins Wednesday June 27.

"If you are not contacted personally and desire to make a contribution call 1457-W or mail to Radio Station KXAR, Hope, Arkansas.

"If you have any playground equipment like swings or slides, which you would like to dispose of call the telephone number listed above.

"Thanks kindly in advance for your contribution."

"E. W. Douglas, President."

Non-Farm Employment Hits Record

Little Rock, June 2 — Arkansas' non-farm employment during May shattered all previous employment security division an estimated 307,000, the Arkansas employment security division announced today.

Administrator Homer M. Adkins said the May employment was a gain of 1,100 over April and 1,000 over the previous high established in December, 1950.

There are 1,500 more workers on Arkansas industrial payrolls than there were in May, 1950, Adkins added.

With an addition of 1,500 workers on construction payrolls and 700 in trade activities, non-manufacturing employment rose to 231,100 in May, an increase of 4,800 over April.

In manufacturing, seasonal factors were principally responsible for a drop of 1,200 workers since April. However, Adkins noted that since May, 1950, there has been a net increase of 2,900 workers on manufacturing payrolls in Arkansas.

Demands for labor continued strong during May, Adkins said, with increased job placement activity shown especially in contract construction and trade and service activities.

Production workers' average weekly earnings during May amounted to $4.00 as compared with $4.55 in April. Compared to May of last year, workers received an average of eight cents more an hour and $5.00 more for a week's work.

O'Connor is subject to re-election next year, and Warren said "I have come to have a warm regard for Maryland's great Governor Theodore Roosevelt McKelton. If he should decide to unseat O'Connor, I might feel it my duty to aid him."

Warren said O'Connor "might well clean up the mess in Maryland before bringing his TV road show to Florida for a fourth time to investigate gambling, which my administration suppressed months before the Kefauver committee was created."

The Florida governor listed 12 questions he said he will ask O'Connor if the Maryland senator accepts his challenge to a "full frank, no-holds-barred discussion of gambling in Florida, in Maryland and in Washington, D. C. and other related matters, including the Kefauver committee's suppression of certain embarrassing evidence."

It was the second time Warren challenged the head of the U. S. Continued on Page Two

Senate Seeks Compromise on Controls

Washington, June 2 — (AP) — Senators angled for a compromise today in the steaming fight over government price-wage controls and price rollbacks, but no solution was in sight.

And the CIO threatened to boycott the stabilization program unless congress approves a program more to its liking than the one now embodied in senate and house bills.

Presidential authority for economic controls expires at midnight Saturday.

The hottest issue in the senate were these clashing moves:

1. A proposal by Senator Douglas (D-Ill) to strike out of the controls bill a drastic proposed limitation on price rollbacks.

2. A motion by Senator Williams (R-De) to withdraw government price support from all farm products if a price ceiling is in effect on any farm product.

Douglas frankly invited a compromise on the rollback issue, but tore into Williams' proposal without any indication of willingness to strike a deal on that one.

Young Bride Raped by Two Armed Youths

Arlington, Va., June 26 (UP)—A 19-year-old bride of eight days was kidnapped from her bed where her husband slept beside her early today by two youths who raped her after driving her to a picnic area.

The armed youths were captured two hours later — one through identification of his tattooed body and the other as he sought a hitch ride from a police officer.

The victim was Mrs. James Hotchkiss, wife of a navy ensign. She told police that the youths smashed in a window of her first floor apartment where she and her husband were sleeping.

One of the men held a gun on her husband and the other pulled her, clad only in a blue negligee, through a door. Then both jumped into a car with her and drove to nearby Great Falls, Va., a popular picnic area.

Each raped her twice, police said she told them. She said one of the youths wanted to hold her for ransom, but the other persuaded him to let her go.

She said one of the men got out of the car as she was driven back to Arlington, which is only a few miles from Washington, D. C. She was released and ran to a house for help.

The house was owned by Arlington Police Lt. W. Lynn Smith who lives about a mile from the Colonial village, the apartment development where Mrs. Hotchkiss lives.

The young blond bride was screaming hysterically when found on the porch of Smith's home. Police said Mrs. Hotchkiss told them one of the men was heavily tattooed. They arrested John R. Polk, 19, Arlington, who had a previous record of house breaking, car theft and petty larceny. Polk confessed immediately, officials said, and implicated William

Death Asked for Catholic Archbishop

Budapest, Hungary, June 2 (AP)—Prosecutor Gyula Alapi demanded the "severest punishment," meaning death, for Roman Catholic Archbishop Jozsef Groesz and his eight companions today and the archbishop threw himself on the mercy of the court in a final statement of repentance.

"I declare I repent and regret what I did," said the archbishop, who confessed at his trial that he conspired to overthrow the Communist government by arms and with American help.

"I have been a Royalist and am still a Royalist. I still hope that the Hungarian people will forget what I did and ask the priests and Catholics faithful not to follow my example. Please consider my confession when you pass judgment."

All nine defendants — five of them Roman Catholic churchmen — made trial confessions of their part in the alleged conspiracy, and seven made use of their right to make a "final statement" today.

The court of two judges and three laymen will hand down the sentences Thursday.

The prosecutor delivered a one-hour summary of the charges against the archbishop, successor to imprisoned Cardinal Mindszenty of Hungary, and against the eight co-defendants.

His request for "severest" punishment is customary in such cases in Hungary and means he demands the full penalty allowed by law. The defendants are charged with spying, attempting to overthrow the state and murder, charges which can bring the death penalty.

Alapi had an easy task of it. All he had to do was summarize

R. Payne, 19, Bethesda, Md. Polk and Payne were charged with kidnapping by Arlington police, and faced rape charges later today.

Mrs. Hotchkiss, a native of Winnetka, Ill., was released after hospital examination and went to her home.

The young couple had moved into the apartment only on Sunday after a brief Florida honeymoon.

Settlement Sought in Phone Strike

Los Angeles, June 2 (AP)—Federal negotiators pressed today for quick settlement of the one-day-old strike of 9,500 southern California employees of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. Meanwhile, the walkout threatened to spread to the Pacific Northwest.

Spokesmen for the C. I. O. said that "quickie strikes" yesterday in St. Helens, and Portland, Ore., were in protest against delays in getting a new contract. Several strikers at St. Helens were replaced and scores walked off the job in Portland.

P. T. & T. officials said they had no reports of interruptions in southern California, where 8,000 of the strikers are repairmen. The other 1,500 in the accounting department. Striking employees represent about 35 per cent of the company's 2,500 employees in the area.

"We expect to maintain normal service," said Lawrence T. Cooper, assistant vice-president in Los Angeles.

The chairman of CWA's negotiating committee, Harold Dugdale, said the walkout won't threaten communications at once but will if the strike continues for several weeks. Picketing, he said, is under way at P. T. & T. installations from Ventura to San Diego, Calif., a distance of about 200 miles.

The workers' pay scales range from $3 to $42 weekly. The company offered a 10 per cent wage increase and Republican South Korea.

"There is always the danger of counterattack and the breaking of an armistice," the spokesman noted.

Tornadoes Strike in Four States

By The Associated Press

Tornadoes and wind storms struck damaging blows across four states yesterday. Crops, property and livestock losses were estimated at more than $1,000,000.

Tornadoes hit in Iowa, Nebraska and Colorado and severe wind storms whipped southern Minnesota. At least five persons were injured.

Two small communities in north central Iowa were hard hit by a tornado. The business district of Duncan, a town of 800 residents, was wrecked and more than half the homes were damaged. Damage was estimated at more than $500,000. Three persons were hurt.

The twister moved across rural areas, killing livestock, and then struck Crystal Lake, a town of 301 population. Every building and home in the town was damaged.

Tornadoes also struck near Sidney, Nebr., near the Colorado border, and in rural areas in eastern Colorado, near Holyoke. A destructive hail storm pounded Scottsbluff, Nebr., for the second time in two days. Thunderstorms and winds up to 80 miles an hour were reported in western Nebraska but there was no major damage.

Hundreds of head of small livestock and poultry were killed by the windstorms which swirled southern Minnesota from Fairmont to Winona. Power lines were snapped and crops flattened over a wide area. Early estimates placed the damage at hundreds of thousands of dollars. Heavy rain fell over the area.

The U. S. weather bureau today reported showers and thunderstorms from the upper Mississippi valley southward to the Ohio valley and southwestward into Missouri and eastern Kansas and Nebraska.

Doyle

The Doyle Home Demonstration Club met with Mrs. J. H. Jeffers on June 12th at 2:00 o'clock. The meeting was called to order by the president. The group repeated the club creed after which the hostess read the devotion. Mrs. Mark Jackson led the group in prayer. Roll call was answered with "My Favorite Garden Flower."

The minutes were read and the business discussions were made. A new vice president was elected to take the place of Mrs. Booser who dropped her name from the club book. A report on poultry was given by Mrs. J. H. Jeffers.

Games were played by the group followed by refreshments served to 17 members and 5 visitors. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Bennie Orr on July 11th at 2:00 o'clock.

DOROTHY DIX Mama's Girl

Dear Dorothy Dix: I'm 30 years old and have been married for two years to Joan, who is also 30. During these two years my wife has gone back and forth to her mother, I never said anything about it because I love her and want her to be happy. Eight months ago we had a daughter, and we stayed with my mother-in-law for about five months afterwards.

About two months ago, I got a good job in another town and found an apartment. My wife came to live here but when I came home from work the first day she was crying because she wanted to go back to her mother. She only stayed three days, then left for her mother's. When I called her, she wasn't coming back to me and wasn't sure she loved me. I've been to see her and asked her to come back but she won't leave her mother, and of course, her mother wants her to stay where she is. It's been three weeks since she left me and I'd do anything to get her back.

Answer: You're going to have quite a time getting your wife home from her mother's apron strings, but for her own sake, yours, and the baby's you'll have to accomplish that Herculean task. Joan is now a wife and mother, and even though she is young for the responsibilities she undertook them knowingly and willingly and must abide by her own decisions. With a devoted husband, a baby and an apartment of her own, she has little to complain of and had better give up the little girl role she is now living and take on the job of providing her husband and baby with a home.

Joan's mother is very wrong to encourage the childish attitude of her daughter. As a conscientious parent, it is her duty to bring Joan to a realization of the obligations of married life and her responsibility to husband and baby.

These points should be brought home to your wife and mother-in-law, and if your attempts to talk to them prove futile, perhaps you could enlist the aid of the pastor of their church.

One of the impenetrable mysteries of matrimony is how a girl who can't walk to the altar without almost literally hanging onto mama's hand, can listen to the words of the marriage ceremony and expect to live up to them. I have been to many, many weddings, and have yet to hear as part of one the admonition that the wife must cling to her mother's side, or refuse to make one decision without mama's counsel. Yet that is the attitude that many spoiled damsels expect to use as a basis for happy marriage. It can't be done! And the mother most worthy of a daughter's love and devotion is the one who steps aside and gives her child a chance to prove she is a woman grown, capable of assuming her honored place as wife and mother. Dear Miss Dix: I am 18 years old and have been married three years to a wonderful man. We love each other dearly, have two lovely children. However, he has a child 5 years old by his former wife who was granted custody of the child. Now she has gone away and left the child for me to care for, but she still receives support for the youngster. I don't want my husband to stop seeing his child or to stop supporting him, but I don't think it is fair to expect me to carry the burden of his care while she is having fun.

Answer: Whenever a girl marries a man who has a child by a former marriage, she assumes definite responsibilities or at least the possibility of having to assume them. That is one reason why I am loath to recommend such marriages. Even though the girl is sure she will make a perfect stepmother, it is very difficult to give love and care to another woman's child—especially if the other woman is living.

In the case of a girl as young as you are, the responsibility is doubly irksome, but it cannot be shirked. The child belongs to your husband, and if the mother refuses to care for him, the job is yours whether you ask for it or not. However, if the mother does not have the boy in her charge, she should not be receiving support for him. This point, of course, is a legal one, and should be in the hands of a lawyer.

The little boy is having his share of trouble, too. Being shunted from one parent to another is not conducive to the security which is every baby's birthright. It is up to you to give him love and attention and to make him feel wanted. Don't fail him!

Dear Miss Dix: I am a boy nearly 18, just graduated from high school, I have never been away from home more than a night at a time and then only with my parents. Now I am 18 and I am about time to have a husband. I have the offer of a job, but my parents are so mean because I won't take away from home. I wouldn't mind it so much if I had a father who would let me see the way once or twice a week, but he won't do it. I receive a liberal allowance, but the things I want seem so far away and I want to start out and make my own place in the world.

SIX FOOT ONE
 Answer: Evidently you need to get away from home for a little while in order to realize how much the comforts and love with which you are surrounded. The boy and girl at your age are cut off from the world and from their own parents. It is a great thing for you to have a father who would let you see the way once or twice a week, but he won't do it. I receive a liberal allowance, but the things I want seem so far away and I want to start out and make my own place in the world. (Released by the Ball Clinic, Excelsior Springs, Mo.)
